ALLIANZ GAA FOOTBALL LEAGUE ROINN 3 SEMI-FINAL

Bord na Móna O'Connor Park 6.00pm

FERMANAGH v OFFALY

AN RÉITEOIR: Patrick Maguire (An Longfort)

LINESMEN: Conor Dourneen (An Cabhán) (STANDBY REF),
Declan Nugent (An Iarmhí)

SIDELINE OFFICIAL: Gary Hurley (An Iarmhí)

In the event of a draw, extra-time and Winner on the Day will be played.

PATRICK MAGUIRE (LONGFORD)

From Granard, Patrick hasn't been in charge of a senior fixture involving Offaly since their 2017 O'Byrne Cup tie against Kildare at today's venue. However, Maguire has been on duty at Bord na Móna O'Connor Park on a couple of occasions since for matches involving the Faithful County at U20 and Minor championship level. Today's match is his second of the 2021 Allianz League campaign (Leitrim v Louth at Carrick-on-Shannon) and it will be his first time taking charge of a match with Fermanagh.

RÉAMHFHOCAL ÓN UACHTARÁN

Táim breá sásta an dheis seo a bheith agam fáilte speisialta a chur romhaibh go léir ar lá mór na peil.

I am delighted to extend a warm welcome to the players, mentors, officials and volunteers to this afternoon's big game.

In addition, I am thrilled to be in a position to also say fáilte ar ais arís to supporters who, north and south, are able to attend our games – albeit in small numbers.

For too long we were a sporting organisation without sport. Then we were a sporting organisation with sport but without spectators. Both scenarios were out of necessity – but that did not make them any easier to endure.

As young people returned to our pitches in huge numbers to run and play with their friends, the Allianz League matches have also played a crucial role providing a sense of normality, helped by the fact that the action has been so thoroughly enjoyable.

Allianz have been our partners in the promotion of the Leagues for almost 30 years – longer than the average age of practically every team involved. We have always valued their friendship and support, but especially so during the challenges of 2020 and 2021 and I thank them again for their commitment to our national games.

In some cases, this weekend's matches will be the final piece of Allianz League action for the teams owing to the condensed calendar and the impending start of the Championship. This has been necessary so that the club calendar is not compromised and facilitates the time and space necessary for club games to take place.

Already this has been an Allianz League to remember with high scoring, exciting matches. We've seen established performers showing that appetite and form is as sharp as ever and some new faces giving an exciting glimpse of what is to come.

In that sense the Allianz Leagues have been as they always have been – marking the dawn of the competitive season, and a time full of hope and promise and aspiration.

Adherence to public health guidance has brought us to this point, so I'd ask all of us in the GAA to continue to act responsibly and adhere to all public health guidelines particularly pre and post games.

To all of those who have made our progress this far possible, our deepest thanks.

Rath Dé ar an obair.
